BOTH IN GOOD TRIM.

That's the way it should be. Your wife will look well if you don't; she'll take good care of that. It's in the nature of things that you should look quite as attractive as she does, but it is in the nature of things that your clothes should look as though they were made for you and nobody else. Our $15.00 silk and wool mixture will fill the bill exactly. We call it phenomenally cheap. An overcoat is needed to complete the outfit. Here, again, we have exactly what you need; nice dressy overcoats from $8.00 up. We are great on underwear this season all colors and prices; big discounts on some broken lots.

DRUNKEN BLUECOATS.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

GETTIE, O. T., Nov. 17.—Last night at Chandler, in county "A," several soldiers were on a spree, and a row ensued at Clegg's place.

They then proceeded to Mat Reeves' saloon and continued the row but were finally ejected. They then went to the back door, and one of the soldiers fired into the crowd which had gathered.

Sheriff Parker was shot through the leg, just below the knee. Mat Reeves was also shot through the leg and was hit on the head by a stone thrown through the window. One of the soldiers was shot through the hip.

THE SICK LIST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—William J. Florence, the actor, lying ill here with pneumonia, passed a fairly good night.

His condition this morning was somewhat improved.

At noon W. J. Florence's physicians held another consultation, at the conclusion of which it was stated that the patient was in an extremely critical condition, but had rallied slightly this morning. So serious was Mr. Florence's condition that a priest was summoned, and received his last confession and administered extreme unction to him.

Early this afternoon there was a slight improvement in Mr. Florence's condition. Dr. Donnellson stated that Mr. Florence's chances for recovery were improving, but that unless a relapse occurred he was in no immediate danger of death.

Doctors Pautsch, Donnellson and Donnellson, of Philadelphia, are attending to him.

Later—The condition of W. J. Florence has somewhat improved.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A bulletin issued from Marlborough house this morning signed by the physicians attending Prince George of Wales states that the prince passed a good night. No unfavorable symptoms have developed and his progress toward recovery will now be rapid.

Boston, Nov. 17.—The condition of the seriously ill with an abscess of the ear.

A TOUGH STORY.

WEST STURGEON, Wis., Nov. 17.—C. B. Geer arrived today looking for the relatives of James McBride, who lies in a critical condition at his home on a claim near Grand Rapids, Minn.

Geer was a few weeks ago a party made up of men named Hahn, Redding, Bruce, McBride and two unknowns, started on a hunting trip to the Rainy lake country.

McBride came in with his feet bare, his left arm broken, his hands and feet frost-bitten, and in a delirious condition. In his brief moments the following story was gleaned.

After the party had been out several days, Redding who furnished the supplies, cut off the whisky rations. This enraged Hahn and his friends and they tied Redding and McBride to trees. Afterward McBride was released and driven from the camp without even a blanket.

McBride was left alone out of reach of men, who became wildly drunk. The next day he returned to the camp and found Redding, who tied to the tree with his head blown off. At his feet was Bruce's body full of bullets. No trace of the others could be found.

THE TRIAL OF ALMY.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 17.—The trial of Almy for the murder of Christine Warden began today. When the district attorney vividly described the killing of the girl, the prisoner made no sound, but tears dropped from his eyes.

When the girl's mother took the stand the sensation of the day came. Almy broke completely down.

Mrs. Warden was describing her life at the farm. Almy wept like a child, and, leaving over, cried out in a broken voice: "Oh, Mrs. Warden, I do not believe I can endure restrained him and he fell back in his arms."

Dr. C. P. Frost of Dartmouth college, who was called when Christine was shot, testified that she was shot in the vagina while lying down.

May was visibly affected by these disclosures, although Almy made no motion whatever. Almy was hanged in effigy tonight. A placard attached to the hanging figure bore this inscription: "Almy, the murderer of Christine Warden. Will take the original next."

PUGH ON CLEVELAND.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 17.—In a letter published here Senator Pugh devotes about 5,000 words to an argument against the re-election of Mr. Cleveland.

He maintains that Campbell lost by running away from silver; that the tariff is not paramount to all other issues; that free silver is equally important; that the new Cleveland cry is raised by those who want to dispose of silver; that Cleveland was beaten before on the tariff issue alone; that he is no stronger now than then; while Harrison is much stronger than before.

In short, if the party allows the gold bug Democrats of New York to foist Cleveland upon it as its nominee, it will go down in defeat.

The letter is avowedly an effort to stem the Cleveland tide lately set in. The senator reads the late elections as giving the Democrats a vote to hope for the strong issue of tariff reform than it had before.

THE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—At the session of the Woman's Christian Temperance union today Miss Frances Willard was re-elected president, receiving 983 votes out of 995.

Mrs. Mary A. Woodbridge was elected recording secretary. Mrs. C. E. Baile of Chicago, corresponding secretary, and Miss Esther Pugh of Chicago, treasurer.

Mrs. Caroline E. Baile was placed in charge of the department of organization. The president's prize banner was presented to the state of Maine. The banner given to the banner state of the National Juvenile association went to Iowa.

LEAVENWORTH'S PONTOON.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 17.—The ice in the Missouri river broke the pontoon bridge in the middle. The two ends swung from the middle parallel with the river and lodged against a sandbar, where they now remain.

Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Exchange Telegraph company gives publicity to sensational news from Rio de Janeiro. No explanation is given as to how the news was allowed to be cabled, and, as it is known that the government of the dictator has taken complete control of the cables and has refused to permit any intelligence not favorable to its interests to be based upon the output of the country, today's dispatches are not accepted here as accurate.

The Exchange company's advice from Rio de Janeiro reports a general strike of the postal service. This is asserted, was suspended today. It is supposed that this refers to the general postal service of the republic, though it may mean that the government of the dictator has taken complete control of the cables and has refused to permit any intelligence not favorable to its interests to be based upon the output of the country, today's dispatches are not accepted here as accurate.
